

Since 2015 there has been no election in Poland. For nearly three years political parties have not had opportunity to verify their support. This is why the approaching local election...

Order subscription to read this article