

Polsat has raised the fee for distribution and sales of its channels for cable TV operators by over 100 percent. As a result, the operators are considering raising prices for...

Order subscription to read this article